Media Invited to Prescott and Russell Area Bravo Breakfast

Hammond, ON – The Catholic District School Board of Eastern Ontario invites members of the media to join us as we celebrate the efforts and achievements of students whose presence is key in our Catholic school communities. The first annual regional Bravo Breakfast awards ceremony will be held on February 11, 2009 recognizing students from Prescott and Russell schools.

The students being recognized at the Bravo Breakfast are significant, positive contributors to the life of the school and the Catholic school community. Each school has selected one student for this award. The award winners and their parents will be in attendance.

Director of Education, Bill Gartland, stated, “The Bravo Breakfasts are an opportunity to honour students who come to school each day and put forth their best effort while adding to the positive environment of our schools. We look forward to recognizing these outstanding accomplishments with our greater Catholic school community.”

When: February 18, 2009 – 7:45 a.m.

Where: Chez Philiias
1422 Lavigne St.
Hammond

Schools Included: Mother Teresa, Russell; Pope John Paul II, Hammond; St. Francis Xavier CHS, Hammond; St. Jude, Vankleek Hill; St. Patrick, Rockland; St. Thomas Aquinas CHS, Russell

The Catholic District School Board of Eastern Ontario has hosted the breakfasts in Cornwall, Brockville, and Kemptville. One more breakfast is planned for Perth and area schools.
