The students being recognized at the Bravo Breakfast are significant, positive contributors to the life of the school and the Catholic school community. Each school has selected one student for this award. The award winners and their parents will be in attendance.

Director of Education, Bill Gartland, stated, “The Bravo Breakfasts are an opportunity to honour students who come to school each day and put forth their best effort while adding to the positive environment of our schools. We look forward to recognizing these outstanding accomplishments with our greater Catholic school community.”
